BETWS AC Rules

SPECIAL RULES, BYELAWS AND CONDITIONS

To be strictly observed by members

1. Before proceeding to fish, provide yourself with a Rod Licence issued by Natural Resources Wales for the class of fishing he proposes to indulge himself in, and must not fish on the Clubs waters during the closed season specified on such Rod Licence. (A full migratory licence must be held to fish the River
2. This membership ticket is under no circumstances transferable and no member shall fish with more than one rod at the same time, nor shall he be accompanied by a dog.
3. No trout under ten inches in length and no Salmon is to be taken under any pretence, however badly they may be damaged during the process of unhooking they shall be immediately returned to the river.
4. A member shall be entitled to examine any other members basket and the latter shall co- operate in this in every way.
5. Members are requested to exercise care in crossing any fences and to avoid trespass and damage to crops or leave closed gates unclosed and also to confine themselves to the banks of the river as far as partible.
6. Members must not occupy any pool or run for more than half an hour after another member has notified his intention to fish such pool or run. In the event of an infringement of this rule, the member observing such infringement of this rule must take the name and address of the offending member and immediately report to the Secretary.
7. Every member must carry his membership ticket with him whilst fishing and produce the same whenever called upon to do so by any other member producing his own membership ticket, or by the club or Natural Resource Wales Enforcement Officers.
8. Any person, attending upon or assisting a member to fish shall not be entitled to fish unless he or she is also a member.
9. Every member binds himself to strictly observe the above rules and byelaws and any such rules, byelaws and conditions as may from time to time be made and be in force by the Environment Agency and the Anglers Club. He also binds himself to do everything within his power to ensure a similar observance by every other member and to immediately report to the secretary any member guilty of an infringement of any such rules, byelaws and conditions.
10. Any member infringing on any of the above rules, byelaws or conditions shall immediately forfeit his membership of the club for the current season without any right of claiming any refund of his subscription or any part thereof and such forfeiture shall not prejudice the tight of the club to take legal proceedings against the offending member, if it is deemed advisable by the Committee to do so.
11. The rights of all members to the privileges of membership of the club whether they be permanent or Temporary Members shall be the same during the period of their membership in accordance with such rules and regulations as shall from time to time be made by the committee.
12. Fishing allowed only on the areas marked on maps provided with this membership.
13. Please observe maps and fishery rules note provided with membership for any byelaws in place and rules relating to certain pools on the river.
14. Strictly no ground bait, power bait, swim feeders, maggots, sweetcorn or keepnets to be used, and only one rod to be fished at any one time.
15. Lakes, bag limit of TWO fish. If an angler wishes to continue fishing after this they then must fish with barbless hooks fly or spin, strictly no bait.
16. The sale of fish is prohibited, any member selling fish will be excluded from the club.
17. No camping or camp fires.
18. Speed Limit on Forestry roads is a maximum of 15 mph.
19. All Anglers to take their litter away with them, anyone witnessed littering could result in suspension from the Club.
20. All anglers must carry a landing net.